Miller Countrywide

Set on a modest corner plot at the quiet Bambry Close in Goldsithney, with a local shop, pubs and supermarkets just a short drive away, this three-bedroom detached bungalow is a classic “roll up your sleeves and reap the rewards” opportunity — builders’ tea optional, vision essential.

In need of modernisation throughout, the property offers a solid and well-proportioned layout, starting with three comfortable double bedrooms, a kitchen ready for reinvention, and a family bathroom awaiting its glow-up. The living room provides a welcoming central space and features an archway leading through to what could serve as a dining area or a second reception room — perfect for those who like options (or just can’t decide).

Externally, the bungalow really comes into its own. The front garden wraps around the property and, while currently more “wild and free” than manicured, offers excellent potential to be transformed into a fantastic outdoor space. The corner plot adds a sense of openness, complemented by a driveway and garage providing practical off-road parking and storage.

To the rear, a patio garden houses the oil tank and offers a private, low-maintenance
