Description

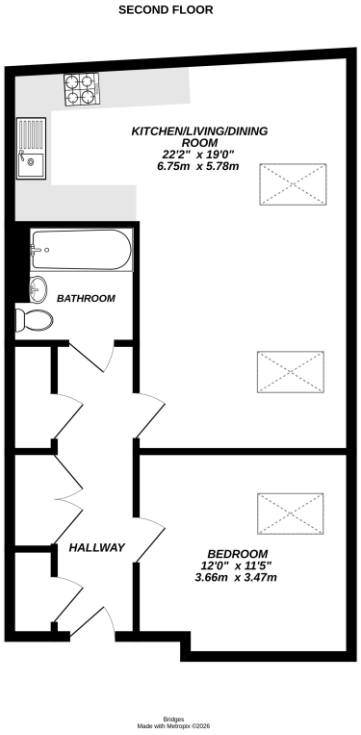

Positioned on the top floor, this well presented apartment offers a bright and modern living space that is both practical and inviting. The open plan lounge, kitchen and dining area is well proportioned and ideal for everyday living or entertaining, while the double bedroom provides a comfortable and relaxing retreat. A stylish refitted bathroom completes the internal accommodation, complemented by copious built-in storage within the hallway that adds excellent practicality and keeps the living areas clutter free.

Outside

Externally, the apartment benefits from allocated parking along with additional visitor spaces. Set in the heart of Odiham High Street, a wide range of local shops, cafés and amenities are within easy reach. For commuters, the M3 motorway is just a short drive away, with Hook railway station also conveniently located nearby, making this an excellent choice for village living with strong transport links.
