

Moorside Drive, Drighlington, Bradford

OIRO £330,000 Freehold

A standout bungalow in Drighlington with generous living, great gardens and effortless access to towns and motorways

Description

A stunning and beautifully presented 3-bedroom bungalow offering a spacious kitchen/diner with built-in appliances, a bright and very spacious lounge that enjoys excellent natural light, and a modern bathroom with a walk-in shower.
Bedroom One is located on the first floor and features built-in wardrobes, with additional storage in the eaves accessed via doors on either side of the generous landing. Bedroom Two on the ground floor includes fully fitted units, while Bedroom Three—also on the ground floor—offers great flexibility and could be used as a home office or guest room, featuring patio doors that open directly onto the decking, creating a bright and inviting connection to the rear garden.
The property benefits from double glazing and GCH throughout.

Externally, this home excels with a double garage and driveway parking for three cars or more. The rear garden features a permanently fitted gazebo providing fixed shade, along with a decked area ideal for relaxing or entertaining. A generous side garden—accessible via the side of the garages—offers further versatile outdoor space. The low-maintenance front garden completes the appeal.

Situated in a great location in Drighlington, the property offers excellent access to local towns, amenities and major motorway links, making it ideal for commuters. Ready to move straight into and offered with no onward chain, this home combines comfort, practicality and convenience.
