Description

This apartment is set within Stroud House and is positioned in the centre of Hook. The layout centres around an open plan living kitchen and dining area which forms the main living space of the apartment. The kitchen is arranged with fitted units and work surfaces, creating a practical area for everyday use. Both bedrooms are doubles and each includes built-in wardrobe space. A modern bathroom serves the apartment and is fitted with contemporary fixtures. Natural light flows throughout, giving a bright and open feel across all rooms.

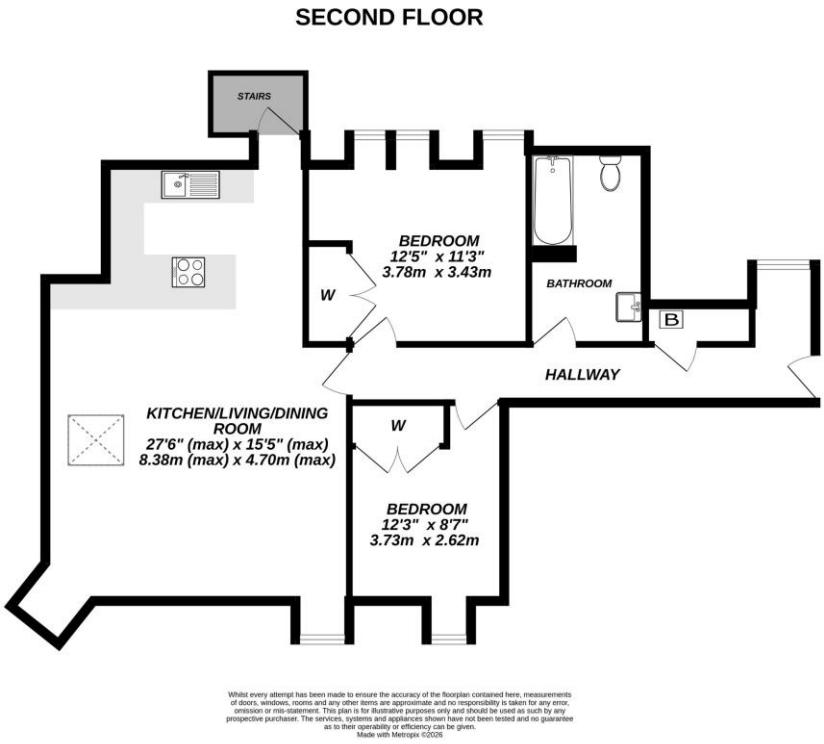

Access to the apartment is available via the main communal entrance, with an additional separate rear door reached by a staircase. This provides flexibility for entry and exit. The building places residents close to local shops, services, and transport links that serve the area. The central setting allows convenient access to everyday amenities while maintaining a defined residential layout within the building.

Outside

The property benefits from private parking and is set in the village centre, a stone's throw from local shops and other amenities.
