

Situated on the highly desirable Beech Road, a short distance from all three local grammar schools, this three bedroom detached bungalow offers adaptable living accommodation suitable for families or those wishing to downsize.

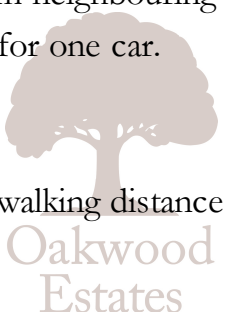

Upon entry, the property features a self-contained annexe to the right, providing a large double bedroom/living area, sink facilities and fridge, and an en-suite shower room.

The rest of the property offers beautifully maintained living spaces including a 21ft lounge with direct access to the garden, well-equipped kitchen, family bathroom and separate WC. Two further double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes complete the accommodation.

The south-facing, mature rear garden enjoys a very high-degree of privacy, hidden from neighbouring homes by tall trees and foliage, with access to the front where parking is available for one car.

Additionally, on-street parking is amply available opposite the house.

The property is offered to the market in an excellent condition throughout and within walking distance of Langley station.
