Alan de Maid present a three bedroom bungalow located on the sought after Downs Avenue in Chislehurst, offering approximately 881 sq ft. of internal accommodation, complemented by a garage, off-street parking and private gardens to both the front and rear. The layout is practical and well balanced, with a welcoming reception room positioned centrally, providing a comfortable space for relaxation and everyday living. Adjacent is a separate dining room, ideally placed for entertaining and offering a pleasant outlook toward the rear garden. The kitchen sits conveniently between the dining area and hallway, arranged to maximise storage and worktop space while maintaining good flow through the home. There are three bedrooms in total. The principal bedroom is located to the front of the property and features a bay window, enhancing both space and natural light. Two further bedrooms are offer flexibility for family use, guests, or home working. A family bathroom is accessed from the central hallway. Externally, the rear garden provides a generous and private outdoor space, with direct access to the garage, while the front garden adds to the property's kerb appeal. Off-street parking for three cars further enhances convenience.
