2 bedroom terraced house for sale

Description

Barford Property are pleased to bring to market, this refurbished 2 bedroom terraced house in East End Park, Leeds. The property boasts a master bedroom with en-suite, not many terrace houses on the market in East End park offer en-suites. The property is decorated in neutral colours finished with the on trend grey theme. The master bedroom is a good size room with free standing wardrobes, chest of drawers and a workstation. The en-suite has a shower a 2 piece bathroom furniture ceramic tiles and finished in grey.

The second bedroom is a good size room again with free standing future, recently decorated in neutral colours.
The accommodation is split over two floors, the upper floors a carpeting in medium pile charcoal grey carpet, setting the property off nicely.
The ground floor of the property has the living room and kitchen, again neutrally decorated to suit all tastes. The property must be seen to fully appreciate the decor and setting of the house.

There is a large basement accessed via the kitchen, ideally located for all your storage requirements and offering an opportunity to potentially further enhance the property subject to the usual planning and building control requirements .
Houses of this standard rarely come to market, call us now to arrange a viewing.

The property is currently fully let on an AST tenancy agreement with rents of £850 pcm, £10,200per annum.
