Ashleigh is an inviting and substantial four-bedroom semi-detached home, beautifully positioned on the cusp of Broadway towards Wickhamford and believed to date from the 1930s. Set behind a generous driveway with parking for multiple vehicles, the property opens into a welcoming entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor. The sitting room enjoys a charming bay window and feature fireplace, while a second reception room offers a peaceful retreat with direct access onto the garden. The well-proportioned kitchen/diner, complete with island and adjoining office, provides excellent space for family living, complemented by a downstairs WC. Upstairs, the accommodation continues with a bright dual-aspect principal bedroom featuring a bay window, two further bay-fronted bedrooms, a fourth bedroom, and a family bathroom. The garden is a standout feature, stretching to approximately 300 feet and offering a wonderful mix of lawn, mature trees, and patio—perfect for relaxation or outdoor entertaining. While Ashleigh would benefit from some upgrading, its neutral décor provides an appealing blank canvas with exciting potential. This is an ideal opportunity for buyers seeking a semi-rural lifestyle and a home they can truly make their own.
