This four-bedroom semi-detached house is for sale in the popular village of Longfield, Kent, offering generous space and excellent access to local amenities and transport.

On the ground floor, an extended lounge measuring approximately 18ft by 18ft provides a large main living area, ideal for everyday family use. There is also a convenient downstairs WC. Upstairs, you'll find four good-sized bedrooms and a family bathroom. Outside, the property benefits from an approximately 110ft rear garden, offering plenty of outdoor space, along with a driveway and a garage providing off-road parking and storage.

The location is a key feature here. Longfield's mainline train station is just a short distance away, with regular services to London Victoria and other destinations, making commuting into London possible in around 30–40 minutes, depending on the service. The village centre offers supermarkets, cafés, restaurants, a doctors' surgery and a chemist, all within easy reach.

Families will appreciate the access to nearby schools in and around Longfield, while local green spaces and parks provide opportunities for walking, recreation and children's play areas. Road links connect easily to surrounding towns and major routes across Kent.

Overall, this four-bedroom semi-detached house for sale in Longfield combines substantial accommodation, a long garden, and very convenient access to transport and village amenities.
