bridgfords

Bridgfords are proud to introduce to the market this four-bedroom detached family house which is prime to put your own stamp on to substantially extend and re-model subject to planning approved. Highly sought after and convenient location walking distance into Wilmslow Centre with a large attached garage, off road parking and cul-de-sac setting.

Positioned within a highly desirable central, convenient location minutes from both Wilmslow town centre and the railway station, this excellent detached house location is ideal for the commuter or family buyer being close to the High School.

Currently the accommodation consists of an entrance hallway with separate porch, downstairs WC, a large living room that is opened up to create an open plan living/dining space and the use of an orangery to the rear overlooking the garden. The adjoining refitted kitchen has a free standing large oven and plenty of storage.

There are four well-sized bedrooms to the first floor, along with a family bathroom.

Externally to the front, there is ample parking fronting the garage, whilst to the rear there is a delightful mature garden which is not overlooked.
