Description

This detached bungalow is a standout opportunity in one of Old Basing's most exclusive pockets, available now with the significant advantage of no onward chain. It is bursting with potential, and for those with an eye for the future, these homes are prime for development, offering a rare chance to extend and evolve this into a landmark, substantial residence in one of the area's most desirable addresses.

Equally, if you are looking for a long term home in its current form, the interior is in lovely condition and provides a comfortable, easy living environment from the moment you move in. It is anchored by a light filled living room that flows into a separate dining room, while the kitchen provides direct access through to the conservatory. Both the living room and the conservatory feature double doors that open directly onto the garden.

It is a space designed for comfort, featuring three bedrooms, a family bathroom and an en suite, with the third bedroom offering a versatile layout that would also be ideal as a study or family room.

Outside

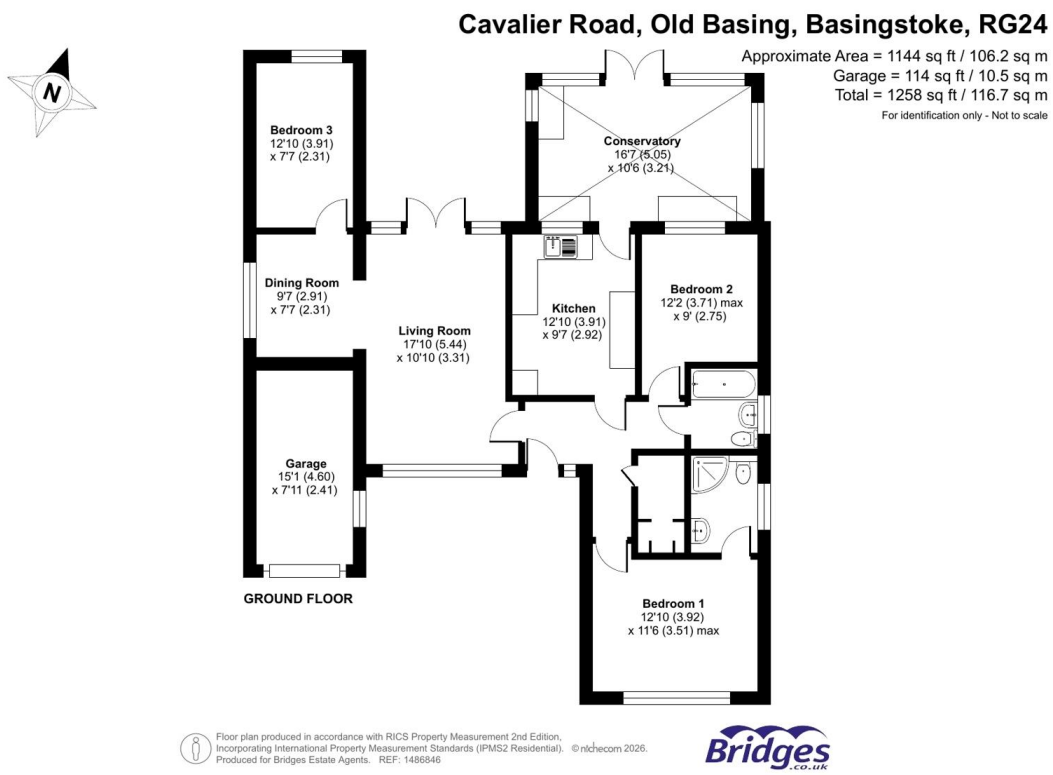

The exterior of the property creates an immediate sense of arrival with a professionally landscaped gravel driveway, a garage and a wide front lawn. Beyond the house, an approx. 120 ft garden provides a private setting, complemented by a clever basement storage area tucked beneath the third bedroom, which provides the perfect solution for keeping your outdoor equipment out of sight.

Because the plot backs onto the line of the old canal, you get completely unobstructed, pleasant views over open fields in a setting that feels worlds away from the daily grind. Old Basing itself offers highly regarded schools, local shops and traditional pubs, while Basingstoke town centre, Festival Place and the local theatres are just a short drive away.

For commuters, the location is ideal, with easy access to Junction 6 of the M3 and a mainline station reaching London Waterloo in around 45 minutes. This is a location that commands attention and the property serves as the perfect shell for someone ready to execute a vision or simply enjoy the home exactly as it is today.
