Situated on a popular Private Road in the sought after Botley, this well presented family home offers versatility, ideal for those looking to upsize, multigenerational living and more.

The spacious 2158 square foot family home benefits from off road parking, a south facing garden, two main bathrooms, seven bedrooms, study and more.

Internally the property offers a spacious entryway with w/c to the side, leading into a hallway with plentiful storage. From the hallway you have a sitting room with bay fronted window, a study, and the kitchen leading through to a utility to the right and dining room and conservatory to the left. From the conservatory and the utility you have access out to the enclosed rear south facing garden, a mix of lawn, patio and flower beds is available in the private garden space.

On the first floor there are five bedrooms, four of which are doubles, one with an en-suite shower room/toilet, and a single bedroom currently used as a TV room.

On the second floor there is a large bedroom, a bedroom/study and a main bathroom with a feature coroner bath, and copious storge space.

Council Tax Band: F (Vale of White Horse)
