Abbotts

Offered to the market with no onward chain, this beautifully modernised detached bungalow occupies a popular position within the highly sought-after coastal village of Heacham.

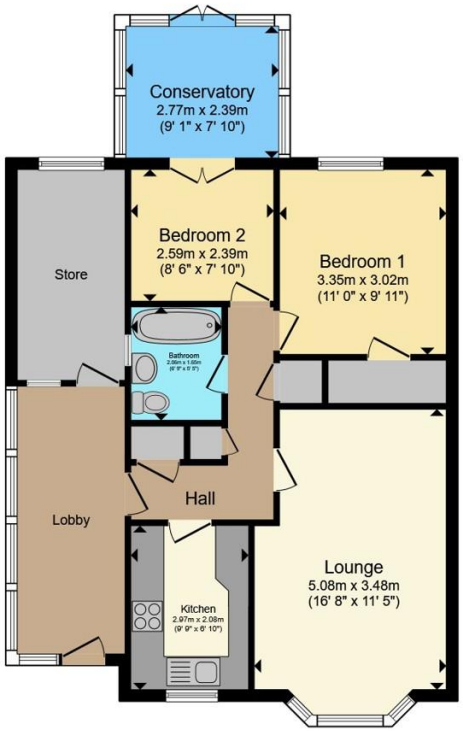

Well-presented throughout, the property benefits from gas central heating, full double glazing and off-road parking, making it an ideal permanent residence, retirement property or holiday home.

The accommodation comprises an inviting lounge, a modern fitted kitchen, and a useful lobby area leading to a store room with potential to be utilised as a home office, study or hobby room. There are two well-proportioned bedrooms and a contemporary bathroom. To the rear, a delightful conservatory enjoys attractive views over the garden and provides an excellent space for relaxing or entertaining all year round.

Outside, the property continues to impress with an enclosed rear garden, offering a private setting for outdoor enjoyment, together with a covered decked veranda, perfect for al fresco dining and enjoying the garden whatever the weather.
