a three-bedroom terraced home situated in West Dartford. This property offers a large through lounge-diner with an open staircase, providing a versatile reception space. The kitchen is ready for appliances to be fitted and leads through to a spacious conservatory, which in turn opens onto an ample rear garden, offering good outdoor space for families. Upstairs there are three bedrooms and a bathroom. The property does require some works, presenting an opportunity for buyers looking to update and personalise a home.

West Dartford is popular for its access to local Grammar schools, amenities, including Dartford town centre with its shops, cafés and leisure facilities. Families benefit from a range of schools in the wider Dartford area, including both primary and secondary options, as well as local parks and green spaces.

Dartford station is accessible by bus or car from West Dartford and provides services to London Bridge in around 35–40 minutes, London Charing Cross and London Cannon Street, making the area suitable for commuters. Road links are strong, with the A2 and M25 within reach, providing routes towards London, Bluewater Shopping Centre and wider Kent. This terraced house is offered chain free.
