Dating back to the 14th century with later additions, the property has been renovated throughout while still retaining original beams, fireplaces, and wooden floors on the first floor. The ground floor has a mix of terracotta and stone flooring. The front door opens into a dining hall which has stairs to the first floor and access to the sitting room which has built-in storage, a further staircase to the first floor and access to a boot room at the rear which houses the boiler. The dining room has doors to the kitchen and utility rooms.

The first floor has two modern renovated bath or shower rooms and four bedrooms: two doubles, one used as a study and one as a sitting room. The principal bedroom has built-in storage

The front of the property has hedged and low brick wall boundaries and a path which leads to the front door, with a thatched porch over, and continues round the property. There is parking for two cars at the side of the property ahead of a detached tandem garage.

Kitchen and Utility Room

The kitchen has a feature fireplace with a timber bressummer, and a range of Shaker style wall and base units with wooden worksurfaces incorporating a ceramic sink and drainer. Integrated appliances include an undercounter fridge, a dishwasher and an extractor over a space for a range style cooker. The utility room has a matching range of wall and base units with an integrated upright fridge/freezer, space for a washing machine and tumble dryer and access to a cloakroom. There is a door to the side and a window overlooking the garden.

Garden

The mature garden wraps around the property on two sides and has tall hedged boundaries and mature trees for screening, and pathways all round. There is a private paved seating area and steps up to a path to the garage, with flower beds and borders. A further set of steps leads to an elevated lawned area, with flower and shrub borders along with three apple trees (2 eating and 1 cooking). There is lockable gated access on both sides of the property.
