SITUATION

Enjoying an elevated position, Dragonsfield Place enjoys the best of both worlds, standing in a peaceful semi-rural location yet still being most accessible and within easy reach of excellent facilities. The favoured village of Thurloxton lies at the foot of the Quantock Hills, designated an area of outstanding natural beauty whilst the property is also within walking distance of the popular local pub The Maypole Inn. Situated a little over five miles from the towns of Taunton and Bridgwater both offering good amenities along with access to mainline railway stations with the M5 motorway being particularly accessible at Junction 24. Adjoining this junction is the small town of North Petherton, which offers a particularly useful range of local amenities.

THE PROPERTY

Built just over ten years ago, Dragonsfield Place is one of just two properties built in this appealing setting which adjoins open fields. From a generous hall, doors then lead to a useful boot room and utility along with a double bedroom (currently used as a lounge/study) and an adjoining shower room. Stairs then lead to the upper ground floor, which leads to an impressive open plan kitchen/dining and living area with bi-fold doors leading out to the garden. On this split level there are two bedrooms and a large family bathroom, whilst on the upper floor there is an impressive master suite with a shower room. The property also features an air source heat pump, solar panels and underfloor heating on the ground floor areas.

GARDENS AND GROUNDS

Elevated from the road, a driveway shared with the adjoining property leads to parking for several cars and the integral garage. The rear and side gardens enjoy a south and westerly orientation and are laid out to lawn with a large patio terrace and herbaceous borders, whilst enjoying a good degree of seclusion. The rear gardens adjoin open fields.
