

Eastoke Avenue, Hayling Island, Hampshire

Asking Price: £400,000

Morris Dibben

Occupying a generous plot, this detached three-bedroom chalet-style bungalow offers versatile and spacious accommodation, ideally suited to a wide range of buyers. Combining generous internal living space with extensive outdoor grounds, the property presents a rare opportunity to acquire a home with significant potential.

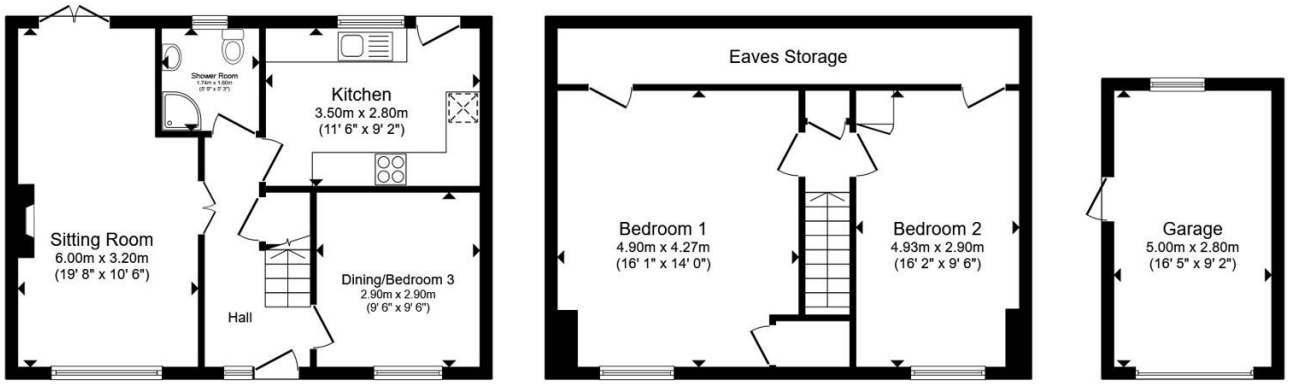

The accommodation comprises a welcoming entrance hall, a bright and spacious sitting room, a well-appointed kitchen, and three well-proportioned bedrooms, providing flexible living arrangements for families, downsizers, or those requiring home office space. The property is further complemented by a family shower room and ample storage throughout.

Externally, the home truly comes into its own. Set within an impressive plot, the property enjoys extensive front and rear gardens offering a high degree of privacy and plenty of space for outdoor entertaining, recreation, or future landscaping projects. A generous driveway provides ample off-road parking and may offer potential for further development, subject to the necessary permissions.

This delightful chalet bungalow combines character, space, and versatility, making it an exceptional opportunity for those seeking a home with both immediate appeal and future potential.
