We are delighted to bring to the market this is stunning share of freehold property with its own front entrance and is located on the first and second floors of an end of terrace building in the heart of Fulham. The first floor presents an amazingly bright dual aspect living room with lovely views down the street and two double bedrooms, both of which benefit from inbuilt storage, and a recently refurbished kitchen and bathroom. On the top floor there is a third double bedroom with an ensuite shower room. This room leads out to a private south-facing roof terrace.

Allestree Road is a quiet tree lined street in the heart of Munster Village. Munster Road, which is just moments away, provides an array of shops, cafes, bars and restaurants. This property is also close to the River Thames and the green spaces of Bishops Park and Fulham Palace. When it comes to transport, the District line can be found at Parsons Green which is within walking distance and there are frequent buses running.
