Asking Price: £625,000

Nestled in the heart of the vibrant and highly sought-after Harringay Gardens neighbourhood, this delightful Victorian split-level apartment spans approx. 864sqft/80.2sqm and is offered with a share of the freehold and no onward chain, ready for immediate occupation.

The accommodation is arranged over two levels and has been thoughtfully designed to combine period character with modern functionality.

The first floor showcases a striking open plan reception room/kitchen dining room with a beautiful bay window, alongside a large modern kitchen that provides generous worktop space and ample storage. Towards the rear, a well-proportioned double bedroom and a stylish family bathroom complete the floor.

On the upper level, the principal bedroom is bathed in natural light thanks to skylights, creating a bright and inviting retreat. A modern bathroom also serves this floor, along with an additional bedroom that offer flexibility for family life, guests, or a home office.

Perfectly located, Manor House Underground Station (Piccadilly Line) and Harringay Overground Station are both just a short walk away, ensuring quick and convenient connections into central London and beyond. The bustling Green Lanes is also close at hand, with its eclectic mix of independent shops, cafés, and restaurants, while nearby parks provide an abundance of open green space.

This charming and versatile home offers an ideal opportunity to secure a place in one of North London's most desirable neighbourhoods.
