DESCRIPTION:

This charming three-bedroom, two-bathroom, two reception, one dining room, separate kitchen and a conservatory leading to private back garden, Grade II listed freehold presents a wonderful opportunity to create a magnificent family home.

Set moments from Coal Drops Yard and the Regents Canal, this period home retains its Victorian features, and is set across four floors. The kitchen, dining room, and the conservatory are located at the garden level. The double reception with marble fireplaces and a W/C is located on the ground level. The en-suite bedroom/ parlour room with access to a balcony with leafy views of the street is on the first floor, and the top floor is occupied by two double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

The whole Kings Cross area has undergone extensive redevelopment in recent years. It's an attractive enclave filled with imposing modern architect designed residences and many period properties. The neighbourhood is nestled between the bustling boroughs of Islington and Camden, and benefits from the extensive transport links afforded by Kings Cross to the City and West End alike. Offering easy access to the Victoria, Piccadilly and Northern Lines. More locally, Granary Square is within easy walking distance with its extensive array of bars and restaurants.
