MANN

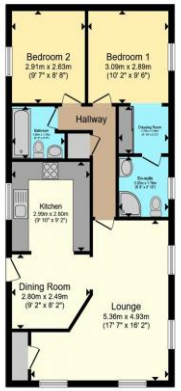

Enjoy the Lifestyle You Deserve at Beverley Park

Imagine waking each morning knowing there's nowhere you need to rush to and everything you need is within easy reach. Nestled within the popular Beverley Park development in Eastchurch, this delightful two-bedroom detached park home offers the perfect opportunity to embrace a more relaxed and rewarding way of life.
Designed with comfort and practicality in mind, the accommodation is bright, welcoming and wonderfully easy to maintain. The well-equipped kitchen sits conveniently alongside the dining area, creating a sociable space for entertaining family and friends. When a little peace and quiet is preferred, sliding doors allow the rooms to be separated with ease. Integrated appliances add a touch of convenience, making day-to-day living effortless.
Both bedrooms are generously proportioned, ensuring there's plenty of room for overnight guests or visiting family. The principal bedroom enjoys the luxury of a dedicated dressing area, fitted wardrobes and its own en-suite shower room, creating a private haven to retreat to at the end of the day. A contemporary bathroom serves the remainder of the home.
Outside, you'll discover a pleasant garden space that's ideal for enjoying a morning coffee, tending to plants or simply unwinding in the fresh air. Useful storage sheds help keep everything organised, while private parking adds to the home's practicality.
Beverley Park is much more than a place to live—it's a community where residents can enjoy a welcoming atmosphere, a sense of security and the freedom to make the most of every day. Exclusively for the over-45s and with pet-friendly surroundings, it's easy to see why so many residents are proud to call it home. The gated entrance and CCTV system provide additional reassurance, allowing you to focus on enjoying life.
The location is equally appealing, with local amenities close at hand and a traditional village pub just a short walk away, perfect for meeting friends or enjoying a leisurely
