Description

This beautifully presented three bedroom link-detached home offers stylish, contemporary living designed for modern life and entertaining. A welcoming entrance hall leads past a sleek cloakroom and opens into a bright, airy open plan space where natural light flows through the combined kitchen, dining and living area. The kitchen features high quality worktops, an induction hob, built-in double oven and an integrated dishwasher.

Upstairs, a central landing with built-in storage leads to a modern three piece bathroom suite and three comfortable bedrooms. The principal bedroom overlooks the rear and includes built-in wardrobes, while a further double room and a versatile single room provide flexible space for guests or a dedicated home office.

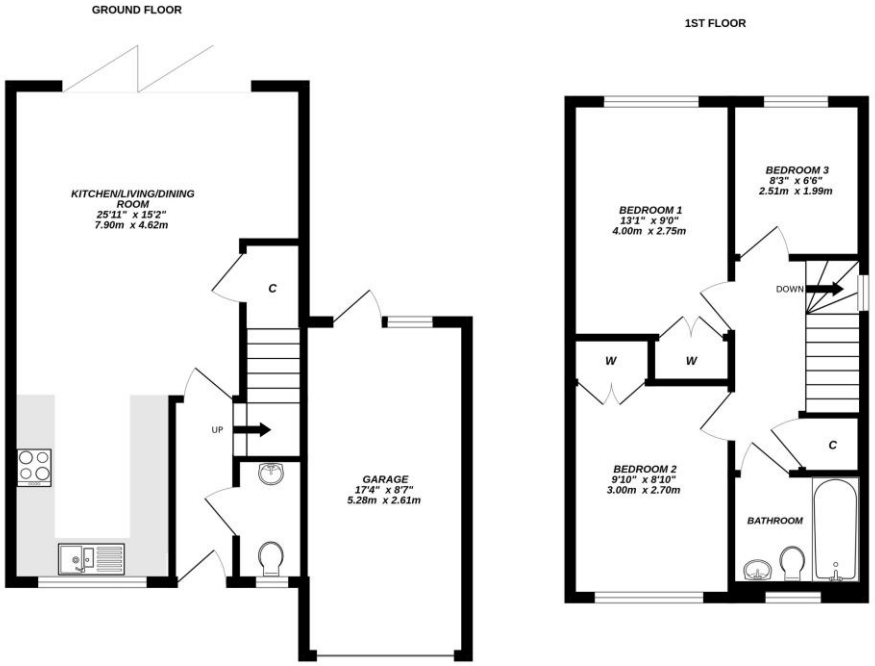

Outside

Outside, the property offers a generous double width, block paved driveway leading to an attached garage with power, lighting and direct garden access. Full width bi-folding doors open onto a south-facing garden with an L-shaped paved patio, neat lawn and established borders for complete privacy.

Set within a cul-de-sac on the popular north side of Hook, the location provides peaceful residential living alongside village convenience, with everyday essentials, schools and green spaces close by. The nearby mainline station and M3 junction offer swift connections to London Waterloo and surrounding commercial hubs.
