An increasingly rare opportunity to acquire The Old Police House, a characterful four-bedroom detached property situated in the sought-after village of Tatsfield.

The property offers well-proportioned accommodation arranged over two floors, with a generous rear garden and carport providing excellent outside space and parking.

Situated in the highly regarded village of Tatsfield, this is a property that offers a rare combination of character, space and potential. Properties of this nature and in such a desirable location rarely come to the market.
