bridgfords

No onward chain. This period stone terraced dwelling is ideally located in the heart of Disley close to all local amenities, including the train station (Manchester - Buxton Line) and Lyme Park. Vastly improved throughout to meet modern standards of living whilst retaining plenty of original character and charm. The accommodation, set over three floors, is light and airy creating a stylish and practical living environment. The ground floor features a welcoming living area complete with a feature recessed log burner, alongside a contemporary fitted kitchen and a modern bathroom.

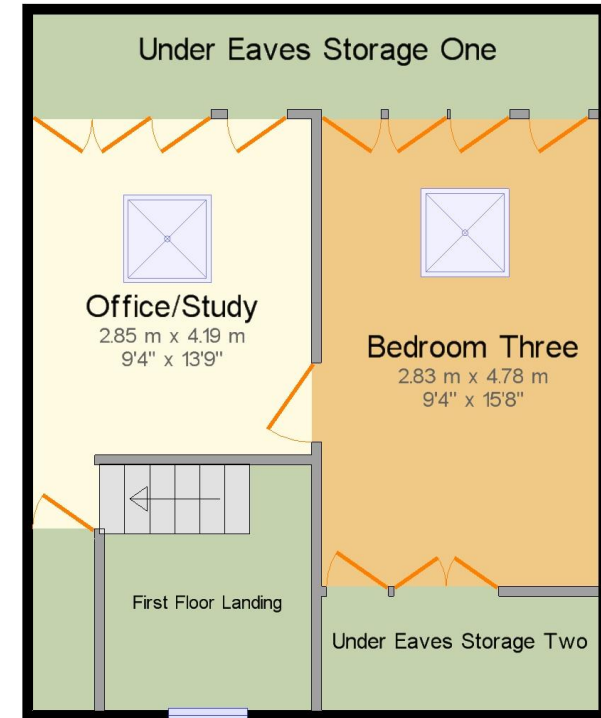

The upper two floors reveal three well-proportioned bedrooms; each thoughtfully designed with generous light and a real sense of space. A standout feature of the home is the impressive, vaulted ceiling on the second-floor landing, which leads to a unique mezzanine level—an ideal flexible space for a home office, studio, or quiet reading area. Externally, the tiered rear garden is open but allocated to each house to provide a peaceful and versatile outdoor retreat, perfect for both relaxation and entertaining or outdoor dining and seating. There is also a stone-built outbuilding that provides excellent storage for bicycles and outdoor equipment. To the front of the property, there is an attractive lawned garden bordered by pathways and a traditional stone wall. Completing the outdoor space is a cobbled parking bay at the top of the garden, providing sought-after off road
