Additional Information

Situated within the sought-after Royal Docks area of East London, offering an excellent blend of modern city living, waterside surroundings and outstanding transport connections. The area has undergone significant regeneration in recent years, creating an increasingly vibrant residential destination with a mix of contemporary developments, established communities and attractive dockside open spaces.

Transport links are a particular highlight, with the nearby DLR providing convenient connections towards Canary Wharf, Stratford, the City and Woolwich. Canning Town offers access to the Jubilee line, while Custom House provides Elizabeth line services, making journeys into central London and across the capital quick and convenient.
