About the Property

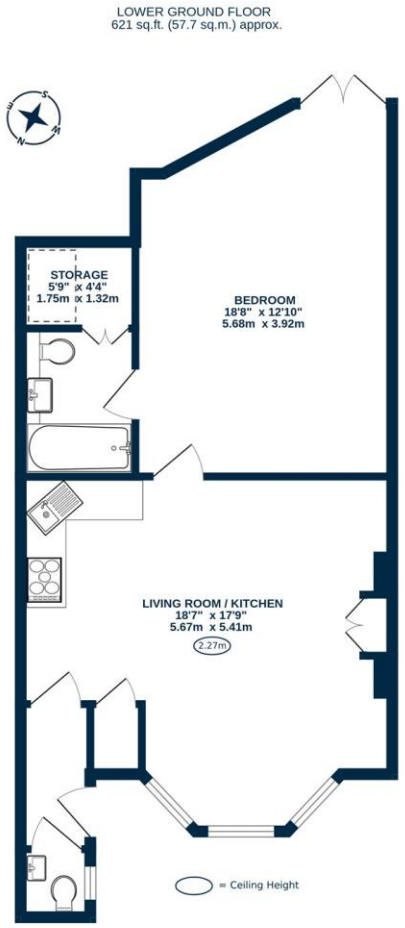

Bay windows, bright mornings, and a whole lot of wow.

Spacious, stylish, and full of character this one bedroom flat is a real find. Part of a handsome period conversion on Inglewood Road, it effortlessly combines generous proportions with a practical layout, perfect for anyone who loves a home that feels open and inviting.

The living space is a standout: three elegant sash bay windows flood the room with natural light and frame the private front patio, while an open plan kitchen sits neatly to one side, ideal for entertaining or everyday living. At the rear, the bedroom is a quiet retreat with excellent proportions and a private ensuite, complemented by a separate guest WC a thoughtful detail that makes life easier. The flat's patio adds a touch of outdoor freedom, perfect for morning coffee or evening drinks under the sky.

Location is everything, and this flat delivers. Just moments from West Hampstead's vibrant cafés, shops, and restaurants, you're also perfectly connected with Jubilee Line, Overground, and Thameslink services close by. With style, space, and convenience all wrapped into one, this flat is a rare gem on one of NW6's most desirable streets.
