Connaught Mews, London, SE18

Internally the property comprises; a open plan, dual aspect reception room with modern fitted kitchen and tiled floors, two bedrooms, of which the master is large and spacious. There is a modern three-piece shower room which completes this superb property.

The property has been refurbished to an extremely high standard by the current owners and would be an ideal first time buyer or investment.

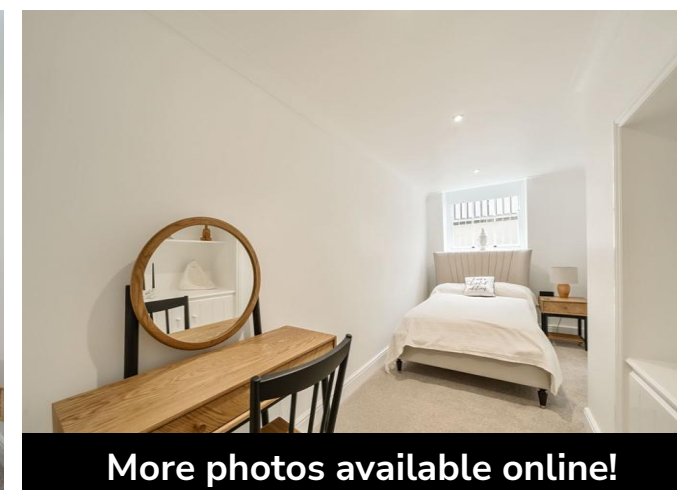

Connaught Mews is situated in over an acre of secluded grounds just outside the heart of Woolwich and shares much with the rich historical background of the area, The Mews consists of three Grade II listed buildings. It was originally a Military Hospital with links dating back to Queen Victoria and Florence Nightingale. Superb transport links with Woolwich Arsenal Station a short walk away offering Thameslink, South-eastern lines and DLR, the Thames Clipper and Woolwich Ferry are also heavily dependable transport options. Additional accessible links are the popular City Airport and the Crossrail/Elizabeth Line making Woolwich a highly desirable and central location to live.

This appealing property features secure gated parking, fantastic condition, tennis courts and chain free!
