Stebbing is a small village mentioned in the Domesday Book with a population of approximately 1,500 and is surrounded by countryside. The village offers a bowling green, public house and grade I listed Church. Located less than a ten-minute drive from Great Dunmow which provides restaurants, pubs, a leisure centre, plus tennis and cricket clubs along with several well-regarded schools. A rail service runs from Braintree which lies approximately 7 miles away.

My wife and I recently purchased our first property through Intercounty. The staff were friendly and knowledgeable throughout and helped us cut through the jargon associated with getting on the property ladder. They made the process quick and easy, and kept us in the loop all the way through as our sales progression agent. Would highly recommend.
