THE DRIVE BECKENHAM, BR3

Charming three bedroom character home in a prime Beckenham location.

Occupying an enviable position just moments from Beckenham High Street, this charming three bedroom mid-terrace house presents an exciting opportunity for buyers seeking a substantial family home with character, scope and potential.

Ideally situated on a road connecting Beckenham Junction Station at one end with the High Street at the other, the property is perfectly placed for enjoying the area's excellent transport links, independent shops, cafés, restaurants and everyday amenities. Rich in character, the house retains a number of attractive period features, including bay windows and a decorative entrance porch, giving it a welcoming façade and plenty of charm. Internally, the accommodation is arranged over two floors and offers a traditional and practical layout, although the property would now benefit from a programme of modernisation.
