

Farmside

Edwin
Thompson

Recently refurbished, immaculately presented end terraced cottage benefitting from stunning countryside views.

Location

The property is located in a rural location but very near to the pretty village of Chatton in Northumberland. The village has a well stocked shop/post office and there is also a popular pub/restaurant. Farnside sits in an elevated position benefitting from stunning countryside views.

Wooler is approximately five miles west and is a well known market town surrounded by the Cheviot hills and close to the Northumberland National Park. The town enjoys a small supermarket, numerous independent shops, butcher, bakers and a delicatessen. The mainline railway station is in Berwick around 20 miles distance and offers regular services to Edinburgh and Newcastle as well as London.

Accommodation

This is a charming two bedroom end terraced cottage. The present owners have undertaken a full renovation and the cottage is finished to a high standard throughout. The fitted kitchen has a range of stylish wall and floor cupboards, cooker, washer/dryer and fridge freezer. There is a spacious and light sitting room with feature inglenook fireplace and windows overlooking the front enjoying the fine countryside views, There is also a fabulous contemporary shower room on this level which is fully tiled with walk in shower, wash handbasin and WC. Stairs lead from the hallway to the first floor where there are two well proportioned bedrooms both benefitting from lovely views.

This property is currently a successful holiday let but could easily be utilised as a permanent home.

Externally there is a raised patio area belonging to the property. There is also the use of a shared courtyard to the rear. Car parking to the front.
