A single-storey dwelling occupying a sought-after corner plot, complete with a single garage and off-street parking, is situated in the established suburb of Benhall, Cheltenham. The property has been extended to create a three-bedroom home and is conveniently located close to Benhall Park and GCHQ, with easy access to major routes, including Junction 11 of the M5.

This semi-detached bungalow is approached via a privately enclosed corner garden, screened by a low wall, timber fencing and tall hedges. A gated pathway leads to the added enclosed porch. The generous accommodation has been arranged to provide three double bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefiting from an en-suite shower room and dual-aspect windows. An inner hallway and passageway lead to the living room, where double patio doors open onto the garden. The kitchen is fitted with wood-effect units, a freestanding cooker and a door providing direct access to the garden. The family bathroom features a white three-piece suite.

The generous garden extends around three sides of the bungalow and is well established, featuring a lawn, mature hedges, small trees, plants, sections of pebbled beds, seating areas and paved areas. The garden also provides access to the single garage and driveway, which offers off-street parking for two vehicles.
