In Detail

A characterful and beautifully presented two bedroom conversion with a section of garden, conveniently positioned close to several rail links, a wealth of shopping facilities and green open spaces.

Occupying the ground floor of this attractive red bricked Victorian building the accommodation is generous and includes a large reception and fireplace, a kitchen /dining room with ample space to entertain, two bedrooms, a utility area and a stylish and contemporary bathroom.

The garden is low maintenance and provides a tranquil retreat perfect for alfresco dining with a raised patio area and lawn with established borders.

Byne Road is conveniently located for both Sydenham and Penge East rail, servicing mainline London stations and with some wonderful green spaces nearby it is a highly sought after location.
