Foxlees has been completely refurbished and extensively remodelled by the current owners to create an impressive, versatile and fully renovated five-bedroom detached bungalow. At the heart of the home is a spacious and striking kitchen/dining room, providing an ideal setting for both everyday living and entertaining. The recently fitted kitchen, complete with a central island and breakfast bar, flows seamlessly into the sitting room, which is accessed directly from the kitchen/dining area. The kitchen/dining room also opens naturally out to the rear garden and outside entertaining space. The accommodation includes two well-appointed en-suite bedrooms, one of which offers excellent potential for use as a self-contained annexe, subject to the necessary consents. This provides an ideal opportunity for multi-generational living or visiting guests. Outside, the attractive west-facing gardens provide a wonderful setting in which to relax and enjoy the outdoors, complemented by a large, newly laid patio, perfect for entertaining. Bungalows of this style, scale and calibre rarely come to the market in this sought-after village.
