Perhaps you're looking to take that first step onto the property ladder, downsize without sacrificing outdoor space, or swap the hustle and bustle of city living for something a little more peaceful.

Well, I think your search might just end here. Tucked away within a quiet cul-de-sac on the outskirts of Winsford, this beautifully presented home offers that increasingly sought-after combination of countryside living and everyday connectivity. With two generous double bedrooms, thoughtfully modernised interiors, a substantial driveway, detached garage and a fantastic rear garden overlooking neighbouring farmland, there's a whole lot more to this home than first meets the eye.

As you approach the property, you're welcomed by a charming front garden, offering an additional spot to sit outside with your morning coffee and enjoy the peaceful surroundings. Alongside the property, an extensive driveway provides off-road parking for several vehicles and leads towards the detached garage at the rear. Step inside and you'll immediately appreciate just how thoughtfully this home has been presented. Beautiful interiors meet practical design, creating spaces that don't just look lovely but genuinely work for everyday life. The bright and welcoming entrance hallway provides access to the ground floor accommodation, with a staircase leading to the first floor. Cleverly incorporated beneath the stairs is a generous storage cupboard that wraps around the staircase, offering plenty of room to tuck away coats, shoes, bags and those muddy walking boots after another countryside adventure.

To the right, you'll discover the beautifully decorated living and dining room. A wonderfully proportioned space, with dual-aspect windows allowing natural light to flow through and providing lovely views towards the surrounding countryside.
There's plenty of room here to create a comfortable living area alongside a dedicated dining space, whether that's for cosy evenings on the sofa, Sunday dinners with family or entertaining friends. The rear window frames the neighbouring farmland, providing a lovely reminder of the peaceful setting that makes this home so special.
Continuing through the ground floor, the kitchen offers an excellent amount of storage and generous worktop space, with a practical layout that makes preparing everything from quick weekday dinners to leisurely weekend breakfasts feel effortless.

Beyond the kitchen, a further hallway connects the separate utility room, downstairs bathroom and rear garden.
And this is where the home really demonstrates how well it has been designed for everyday living.
The utility room provides that all-important dedicated space for laundry, cleaning essentials and the household bits and pieces you'd rather keep out of sight. With convenient access to the garden and downstairs bathroom, it's also perfectly positioned for muddy paws returning from countryside walks or little ones coming home after an afternoon at the nearby park.
Practical, considered and beautifully presented. Exactly what a home should be.

Upstairs, you'll find two fantastic double bedrooms, both offering excellent proportions and flexible accommodation to suit different lifestyles. The master bedroom is a particularly lovely retreat, enjoying dual-aspect windows that provide views towards the quiet cul-de-sac at the front and the neighbouring countryside to the rear.
Imagine waking up to the peaceful surroundings of rural Cheshire, or catching the last of the evening light across the fields before settling down for the night. There's also the added benefit of a walk-in wardrobe, providing dedicated storage for clothing, shoes and accessories, helping to keep the bedroom itself beautifully uncluttered and relaxing.
The second bedroom is another generous double, offering plenty of flexibility. Whether you need a comfortable guest bedroom, a child's room or a dedicated home office for those working remotely, there's no need to compromise on space.

"Imagine, a home that makes every day living feel effortless."

Outside is where this home offers even more than you might expect.

Occupying a generous plot, the property benefits from a fantastic rear garden that provides a wonderful extension of the living accommodation, with the added luxury of neighbouring countryside views.

A spacious patio offers the perfect setting for summer barbecues, alfresco dining or simply sitting outside with a glass of something lovely after a long working week. Beyond the patio, the generous lawn provides plenty of room for children to play, dogs to explore or those with green fingers to create their very own countryside garden.

The detached garage provides substantial additional storage, with a convenient side access door from the garden and vehicular access from the gated driveway. For buyers looking for a little more flexibility, it could also offer potential for alternative uses, such as a hobby room, studio or home office, subject to any necessary permissions and building requirements.

With generous parking, a detached garage, beautiful gardens and field views, it's an outdoor space that offers far more than simply somewhere to sit.

"Step outside and the sense of space continues from inside to out."
