This well-presented one-bedroom first-floor apartment is ideal for a single occupant or couple.

Description

Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac in the heart of Faversham, this well-presented one-bedroom first-floor apartment is ideal for a single occupant or couple. Accessed via a private staircase, the property opens into a spacious lounge, a bright double bedroom, and a modern fitted kitchen with space for appliances. The modern bathroom has also been recently updated, offering a clean and contemporary finish throughout. Additional benefits include communal parking and a peaceful residential location, just a short distance from local amenities and excellent transport links.

Location

A short walk to the charming market town of Faversham where you will find local traders and cafe culture around the Guild Hall and the market three times as week. The train station offers service to London, Canterbury and Whitstable and Dover. The property is ideally suited to take advantage of all of this.
