The flat has gorgeous big bay windows and the one in the kitchen acts as a window seat. It lets in loads of light which is really lovely to sit in when dinner is cooking. The whole flat has had a lot of love put into it; it was my first home and the first time I've lived by myself so I have a lot of happy memories here.

Located on the popular Taff Embankment in Grangetown, this charming one bedroom apartment enjoys beautiful river views and is just a short distance from Cardiff city centre.

The property offers a spacious reception room, a comfortable double bedroom, modern kitchen, and a well-appointed bathroom, making it an ideal choice for first-time buyers, professionals, or investors.

One of the standout features is the lovely riverside setting, providing a peaceful outlook while still being close to a wide range of shops, restaurants, and local amenities.

Offered with no onward chain, this is a fantastic opportunity to purchase a home in a sought-after location with the perfect balance of city convenience and waterside living.
