YOUR MOVE

A superbly positioned two-bedroom bungalow offering generous living space, two reception rooms, a useful loft room, detached garage and a beautifully landscaped rear garden. Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac in Ridgeway Close, this well-presented home combines comfortable single-level living with additional versatile space and a convenient location close to local amenities and transport links.

The property is presented in good condition throughout and benefits from two reception rooms, providing excellent flexibility for both everyday living and entertaining. The main living room is bright and welcoming, featuring wood-effect flooring, neutral décor and sliding doors opening onto the rear garden. The second reception room offers an ideal space for dining, hobbies or working from home.

The fitted kitchen provides ample storage and worktop space, with a useful integrated laundry area.

There are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, both benefiting from large windows and fitted wardrobes. The bathroom comprises a white suite, with a shower over the bath and fully tiled walls.

A further feature is the generous loft room, accessed via a pull-down ladder, providing valuable additional space ideal for storage, hobbies or occasional use.

Outside, the property enjoys an attractive frontage, a detached garage and a private, landscaped rear garden featuring paved seating areas, tiered flower beds and established planting, creating a pleasant space for relaxing or entertaining with relatively low maintenance.

The location offers convenient access to a range of local amenities, with Apsley High Street providing cafés, supermarkets and everyday shopping facilities. Gadebridge Park and the Grand Union Canal are also within easy reach, offering attractive walks and open spaces. Apsley railway station provides regular services to London Euston in approximately 30–35 minutes, while local bus routes connect to Hemel Hempstead town centre and its wider range of shopping, leisure and recreational facilities.
