The ground floor features a large open plan kitchen/lounge/diner, creating a central space for cooking, dining and relaxing, with outlooks over the rear garden. The room also features a log burner, creating extra warmth in the winter months. To the kitchen area are modern high gloss units, including a central island. Two further reception rooms provide additional living and entertaining areas, giving flexibility for families or those working from home. For extra convenience, there is a ground floor WC.

To the first floor are three bedrooms, the main bedroom having a bay window. There is a further large bedroom within the loft area, offering further versatile space. The room is flooded with natural light from both windows and skylights. The bathroom includes both a bath and shower cubicle, and is finished in a contemporary style.

Externally, the rear garden provides lawn, decking area and planting borders, suited to outdoor seating and play space. To the front is a large driveway and garage, providing an extra storage area.

The property is well placed for local shops and services in West Newcastle, with further amenities in nearby Denton Burn and West Denton, including supermarkets and community facilities. A range of primary and secondary schools are accessible in the surrounding area.

Regular bus services run towards Newcastle city centre for shopping, leisure and employment. Newcastle Central Station, reachable by bus or car, provides rail services to London King's Cross in around three hours and to Edinburgh in approximately 90 minutes. Road connections via the A1 and A69 offer convenient access across Tyneside and further afield.

Local parks and riverside walks along the Tyne add to the lifestyle on offer, making this property a practical option for buyers seeking a well-situated family home in Newcastle upon Tyne.

Early viewing is recommended.
