For sale: a two-bedroom flat in Teignmouth, offering light, airy accommodation with neutral décor throughout. Set within an attractive period building, the property provides a practical layout suited to first-time buyers or investors.

The open-plan kitchen/lounge is the main hub of the home, featuring high ceilings, large sash-style windows and modern fitted units with bold orange fronts, providing good worktop and storage space. There is room for both a seating area and small dining table, creating a sociable living space.

Both bedrooms are doubles and benefit from large windows offering plenty of natural light. The main bedroom is a good size double room, while the second bedroom is also a comfortable double. The shower room is fitted with a white suite, walk-in shower and tiled walls, giving a clean, contemporary finish. The property has gas central heating and on-road parking.The property benefits from a useful cupboard space which currently houses a washing machine.

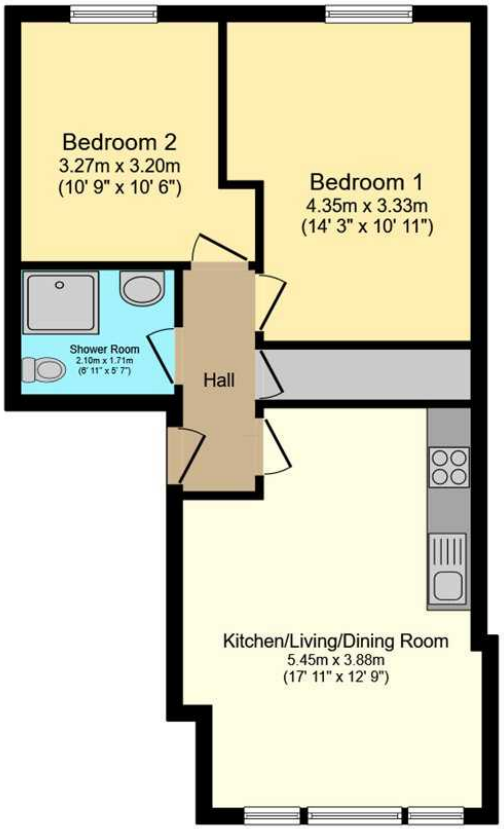

Barnpark Terrace is well placed for Teignmouth town centre, with its selection of shops, cafés and restaurants, as well as the seafront, back beach and riverside walks along the Teign estuary. Local green spaces such as The Den and Mules Park are within easy reach.

Teignmouth railway station is nearby, offering mainline services to Exeter St Davids in around 25 minutes and to Plymouth in under an hour, with direct trains to London Paddington from Exeter. Regular bus services connect to neighbouring coastal towns and Exeter, making this flat a convenient base for commuting or enjoying the South Devon coastline.
