Description

Tucked away in a sought after neighbourhood close to Hartlett's Park, this charming two bedroom end of terrace home offers light filled living and the added benefit of no onward chain.

The ground floor features an integrated kitchen alongside a spacious living area with a bright and airy feel, and pleasant views over the private garden. Upstairs, both bedrooms are generous doubles, equipped with built-in wardrobes and dual aspect windows that flood the rooms with natural light.

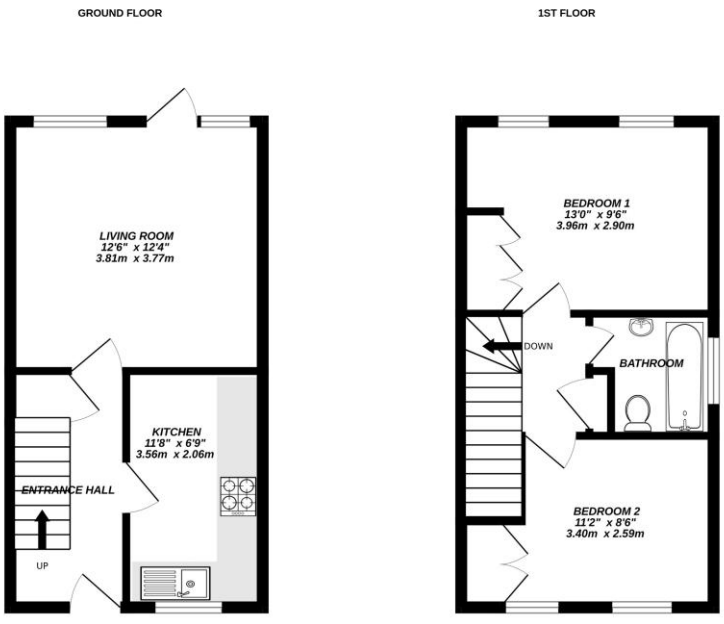

Conveniently located close to Hook village centre and the mainline railway station, with direct links to London Waterloo, this bright and inviting home is ideal for first time buyers, downsizers, or investors. Early viewing is highly recommended.

Outside

This end of terrace property is tucked away within a popular neighbourhood and it's rear garden ensures privacy as it adjoins woodland and views of Hartlett's Park. It features a side gate leading to a walkway, a shed, a paved patio area and a pathway leading to the garden's end. The remainder of the garden is laid to lawn with shrub borders. At the front, the property has a partially lawned area and a central pathway to the front door.
