Dear Iwona,

It's been more than a week since the British Gas Engineer sent the quote to you and to the landlady but no action has been taken so far. According to Council rules, it should get replaced within a week.

It's more than a month now since the boiler is not working. My electricity bill is increasing due to usage of Electric immersion.

Will the landlady compensate for this?

Regards,
Ankan

Good afternoon Ankan,

Thank you for your email.

I understand the landlady is still deciding on how to proceed with the boiler repairs/replacement so I have contacted her again today to follow up on the matter. As soon as we receive a response I will be in touch.

Kind Regards

Could you let me know if you heard anything from the Landlady as yet?
